—James Haslet lost a fine Jersey cow last week, the animal being found dead in the pasture field on Thursday. Mr. Haslet valued the cow at more than $100, and she came of a strain of stock that has been owned by the Haslet family for more than thirty years. Just what caused her death is not known.

—The well on the Overlander lot across the river was finished the last of the week and was dry at about 285 feet. A small show of oil was found at about 55 feet, however, and the well was plugged below this and may make a small producer. The second well will be drilled on the Edgar Hunter lot, below the station.

—The Oil City Derrick declares that many of the races in the Lake Erie circuit this year have been "crooked," that they were "framed up." That is not a new discovery, however, as many a poor cuss can testify who has been stung for fair. Hens' teeth are abundant compared with honest horse races in this day and generation.

—A few students can yet be accommodated in the dormitories of the Lock Haven State Normal School for the fall term beginning Sept. 6th. The school is usually filled during the entire year, hence the number of rooms are limited. You will make no mistake if you select this thoroughly established school. Write for a catalogue.

—Frosts of more or less serious consequences fell on Saturday and Sunday nights back from the river where the country was unprotected by fog. Corn suffered most severely, while buckwheat was considerably nipped in spots. The full extent of the damage is not yet known, but it is feared that some fields of corn may be ruined.

—Your dining room floor can be touched up and refinished with Campbell's Floor Finish and the result will be very satisfactory. Bovards Pharmacy carries a full line of all size cans, and the manufacturers guarantee perfect satisfaction if the simple directions are followed. For sale in Kelletville by Frank E. Harkless and Mrs. M. Andrews.

—A civil service examination will be held at Kelletville on Saturday, Sept. 18, for the position of 4th class postmaster at Whig Hill. The examination is open to all citizens residing within the territory supplied by that postoffice, under the usual requirements, and full information may be had by applying to the postmaster at Whig Hill, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C. The compensation of the postmaster at this office for the last year was $66.

—The law forbidding the sale of cigarettes to minors contains but one section, but it is direct and to the point, as follows: "If any person or persons shall furnish cigarettes or cigarette paper by gift, sale or other means, to any person or persons under the age of twenty-one years, he or she so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than three hundred dollars, and not less than one hundred dollars."

—Don't let a grouch grow on you. It is disagreeable to all your friends and acquaintances. Besides, Dr. Charles McCormick has been telling a medical society in Chicago that the man with a chronic grouch will certainly grow into an abnormal being. By the time his grouch reaches an acute stage, says this authority, he may properly be classified as mentally unbalanced. On top of that chronic grouch is an obstacle toward the ill-tempered one's recovery from disease or illness. Get rid of your grouch or it may get rid of you.

—Fish Wardens Alberts, of Warren and Franklin, have been patrolling the Allegheny during the past couple of weeks, and on Saturday night landed in Tionesta, where they spent the Sabbath. They overhauled a number of spearing boats Saturday night, about seven in all, but failed to find anything upon which to base an arrest, the sportsmen having observed the law to the letter, either because of a death of game fish, or because they "could but wouldn't." Leastwise nothing but suckers were in evidence when the wardens overhauled the different catches.

—A parlor meeting given to the members of the W. C. T. U. by Mrs. G. F. Watson, was a pleasant event of Tuesday afternoon. The company was favored with a piano solo by Miss Edith Hopkins, vocal solos by Mrs. Elsie Rogers of Cincinatti, and Mrs. Cora Feit, and readings by Miss Genevieve Douth, all of which were much enjoyed. A dainty lunch was served. Mrs. Watson was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Slocum of Erie, Pa., Mrs. Shewman of Oregon City, Ore., and Mrs. Cora Feit of Tionesta. Out of town guests were Mrs. J. H. Dingman of Toronto, Can., and Mrs. T. J. VanGieson of Leechburg, Pa. Press Surr.

—Have you ever had your day suddenly turn sunshiny because of a cheerful word? Have you ever wondered if this could be the same word, because some one had been unexpectedly kind to you? Do you remember, as a child, how excited you were because some one gave you a little present, and how you always had a feeling of admiration and affection—selfish, perhaps, but real—for that generous friend? You can do the same to-day for somebody. It is only a question of a little imagination, a little time and trouble. Think before you finish this paragraph "what can I do to-day to make some one happy?" Think now. Old persons, children, servants—even a bone for the dog or crumbs for the bird. Why not?

—Tionesta township items: S. N. Flowers killed a rattlesnake a few days ago in front of his porch. It had seven bells and a button to give warning of its coming.—Lawrence Reib and Ezra Grubbs have just finished digging a water well for Mr. Flowers. At a depth of ten feet under ground they found a piece of leather 2x3 inches in size, about as thick as an ordinary strap and well preserved. How it got that far under ground is a mystery.—Everybody seems to be busy picking berries.—C. Wert killed a rattlesnake while picking berries. Edward Fox killed three rattlers while picking berries at Little Tionesta and heard a number of others he did not kill.—Did you ever see funnels growing on a cauliflower stock? If not, call on Mr. Whitton, at Jake's run.

—A passing locomotive fired an eight-barrel tank belonging to the South Penn oil company on the Carter farm, near the track of the P. B. R. a half mile below West Hickory station, yesterday about one o'clock. The blaze was subdued before much damage was done.

—George Swab, one of our county's good citizens, who has a fine farm under cultivation at Hunter Station, about three miles below Tionesta, can yet show the way to many a younger man when it comes to doing a full day's work. Last Friday he cut by hand and bound up twenty-four dozen sheaves of oats. The fact that the work was done on a side hill, where he could only cradle up hill, makes his task seem all the more difficult. And then just to round out the day he went out after nine o'clock at night and shocked up the whole cut, when it looked as though a rain storm was approaching. Mr. Swab passed his 56th birthday last February and was one of Uncle Sam's valiant defenders in the Civil war. Now come up, you youngsters, and beat this record.

—We take the liberty of extracting the following items of news from a private letter from our valued friend Wm. Richards, Esq., of Mayburg, who still has the general superintendency of the Cook Lesse, one of the most prolific and best "staying" properties the Pennsylvania oil region has ever known: "Cook oil lease has just brought in a 5-barrel pump on lot 4821, the old Balltown property. We have changed all our steam engines into gas engines this summer, and they go good. We are putting in iron pumping rigs and iron derricks, doing away with wood altogether. They can be put in for less money than wood. Have just finished a 700-barrel iron storage tank for the Refinery. The gasoline plant is going fine, with an output of 8,000 to 10,000 gallons per month, for which we get a very fancy price. We ship all through the west and Canada."

—The annual picnic of the W. C. T. U. of Kelletville was held at the home of Mrs. W. F. Jones, of Newtown, Friday, Aug. 20, 1909. Knowing Mrs. Jones to be the charming hostess which she is, all who could be, were present, and all there congratulated themselves upon the thorough good time which they enjoyed through her hospitality. The Union have elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Ellen B. Cantlie; vice president, Mrs. Donna Montgomery; secretary, Mrs. Mabel Henderson; treasurer, Mrs. Lilly Dotterer. The meetings throughout the past year have been the occasion for the gaining of much helpful information, and many interesting discussions concerning the various departments of the work, and to judge by the good time they had at their picnic, the ladies meet in a social way as successfully as when duty calls. Press Surr.

—Edward Putnam, of Titusville, while visiting his brother, Raley Putnam, who now conducts the Jacob Bender Hotel at West Hickory, was robbed of $21.50 on Thursday night last. The thief entered the room where Mr. Putnam was sleeping and took his trousers, which he proceeded to rifle after getting out of the house. The robbery was discovered very shortly after it occurred, the victim having been awakened by the thief as he was leaving the house, but no trace of him could be found. The trousers had been dropped on the outside with nothing missing but the pocket book containing the money. The thief had evidently planned an extensive raid. The Globe Hotel was also broken into, but landlord Harry Canfield, who was sleeping down stairs on a couch, owing to the hotel being crowded, heard a man in the dining room about 2 a. m. He opened the door quickly and saw the chap before he could get out and says he knows him. Earlier in the night the Witherell boarding house at Endeavor was entered, but the only thing missing is a pair of eye glasses belonging to Mrs. Ed. Witherell. Some milk was also stolen at the home of I. J. Wadsworth.

The Sorrell brothers are busily engaged pulling wells for Wm. Richards.
A party of people returning from the Buckwheat Picnic at Marienville lost their hats, but luckily one of the neighbors below town found the most of them. We understand they were ladies' and gentlemen's hats. The noise the party made when passing through town, when all our people were sleeping, would almost cause people to think they had lost most of their clothing and were suffering from the cold.
Meeting and Sunday school were well attended Sunday morning.
Mrs. Sorrell was shopping in Sheffield Saturday.
Cholera Infantum Cured.
"Something like two years ago my baby, which was then about a year old, was taken seriously ill with cholera infantum, vomiting and purging profusely, writes J. P. Deunpey of Deunpey, Ala. I did what I could to relieve her but did her no good, and being very much alarmed about her went for a physician but failed to find one, so came back by Elder Brox & Carter's store and Mr. Elder recommended Chamberlain's Cholera, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I procured a bottle of it, went home as quickly as possible and gave the baby a dose of the remedy. It relieved her in fifteen minutes and soon cured her entirely." For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Family Reunion.
On Wednesday, August 18th, 1909, the family of Mr. and Mrs. William Parker Siggins held a reunion at their home in West Hickory, Pa. As the weather and other conditions were most favorable, the gathering was a great success in every respect. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Siggins is pleasantly situated on the bank of the Allegheny river, and only a few rods from the site of the original Siggins homestead. It was about a century ago that George Siggins, the grandfather of W. P. Siggins, came to this valley and bought the land of which the present farm is a part.
Of the thirty-six descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Siggins, twenty-nine were present, and for the first time in fifteen years all of the nine children were under the home roof. The following members of the family were present: Mr. and Mrs. William W. Siggins and their two children Elizabeth and Floyd; Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Siggins and their five children, Fred, May, Leon, Mary Alice, and Ruth; Mrs. Pearl Siggins Carson, her husband, Mr. Fred C. Carson, and their daughter Goldie, all from West Hickory; Mrs. Letitia Agnew and her children, Alice, Ethel and Clarence of Youngsville, Pa.; Mr. Eugene Forest Siggins and his daughter, Ruth, of Mannington, W. Va.; Mrs. Bertha Siggins Young, her husband Mr. John K. Young, and their children, Clara, Floyd, Marie and Anna Grace, of Conneautville, Pa.; Truman Collins Siggins of Fredonia, N. Y.; Mrs. Emma S. Shaw, her husband, Mr. Frank Shaw, their children, Claud, Miles Edwin, William Fay, and Frank Allen, of McKeesport, Pa.; and Mr. Earl A. Siggins of Pittsburg, Pa. The following grandchildren were not present: Stanley and Gail Siggins of Mannington, W. Va., and Pearl Jane, Lee, Arilla, Donald and Lester Siggins of Fredonia, N. Y.
The day's festivities started off with a fish breakfast, as the stalwart sons went spearing on the river the night before. At eleven o'clock a game of baseball was called. The teams were somewhat "mixed," being made up of fathers, mothers and children. The game closed with a score of 17 to 13, "in favor of the Siggins family," as the umpire said, and since both captains claim the higher score, the decision is still in debate. Before dinner the host made a speech welcoming them to his company and inviting them to come every summer. Later some of the younger generation gave recitations which were much enjoyed. In the afternoon other members of the family came to offer their good wishes. After a generous supper the day's pleasures were over, though the happy remembrance of it will last for years.

Now.
Is the time to engage a room for the Fall Term at the Clarion State Normal School. The coming term promises to be largely attended. New Dormitory, Fine Equipment, Free Tuition. Write to The Principal for full information.

Intense Colicky Pains Relieved
"For some years I suffered from intense colicky pains which would come on at times and from which I could find no relief," says I. S. Mason, of Beaver Creek and Barre, Ky. "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me by a friend. After taking a few doses of the remedy I was entirely relieved. That was four years ago and there has been no return of the symptoms since that time." This remedy is for sale by Dunn & Fulton.

—Thieves on Wednesday night entered the postoffice of Riceville, Crawford county, and robbed the safe of from $35 to $40 in stamps and small change. The postoffice occupies a portion of Postmaster Rice's residence. The burglars operated noiselessly, the safe, which was used for protection against fire only, being unlocked. The thieves escaped without being detected and left no clue that might lead to their identity.
